

Part-time Librarian – 2025–2026 School Year

Bishop McHugh Regional Catholic School – Cape May Courthouse, NJ

Bishop McHugh Regional Catholic School, a faith-centered, academically strong, and nurturing school community located in Cape May Courthouse, NJ, is seeking a part-time Librarian for the 2025–2026 school year.

We are looking for a dedicated and dynamic educator who embraces Catholic values, brings creativity and innovation to the classroom, and fosters both academic and spiritual growth in students.

Qualifications

- Valid New Jersey Teaching Certification (Standard, CEAS, or CE); or equivalent out-of-state certification
- Bachelor's degree in Education and/or Library Science (preferred)
- Practicing Catholic who is willing and able to model and share the faith; Pastor's letter testifying to candidate's practice of faith.
- Willingness to engage fully in the faith life and mission of the school
- Required to complete criminal background check and VIRTUS training upon hire

Key Responsibilities

- Provide rigorous, engaging instruction aligned with curriculum standards
- Foster a joyful, respectful, and faith-filled classroom environment
- Collaborate with colleagues, families, and the wider school community
- Integrate STREAM, technology, and cross-curricular learning experiences
- Participate in school liturgies, events, and Catholic identity initiatives
- Other duties as assigned by principal

Why Bishop McHugh?

- Supportive, mission-driven school community
- Access to engaging learning environments and up-to-date technology
- Opportunities for professional growth and leadership in a PreK–8 setting
- Salary range: $12,000–$16,000, based on experience and qualifications

To Apply

Interested, qualified candidates should send a cover letter, resume, and references to Alicia Farren, principal@bishopmchugh.com.